

Rindge Recreation Presents Foliage Splendor at Quechee Gorge, VT Wednesday, October 14, 2015

Today we will admire the beauty of New England’s foliage as we head to Vermont. We start with lunch at the famous King Arthur Flour Café, Store, and Cooking School in beautiful Norwich, VT. We will be greeted with a tour which includes the history of the bakery. You may order lunch from the delicious café menu of fresh items with a $10 gift certificate. After lunch we will view a cooking demonstration. There will be time for shopping in the incredible Baker’s Store where you can find anything for your kitchen, delicious food items, as well as their delectable breads and pastries.

Next we wind our way toward Quechee Gorge known as “Vermont’s Little Grand Canyon,” one of New England’s most popular natural wonders. We also visit Quechee Gorge Village to enjoy an old fashioned general store, antiques, Cabot Cheese Store, Vermont Toy & Train Museum, and much more.

On the way home we will share memories of Vermont’s splendor.

Price: $89 per person includes: Luxury motor-coach transportation, all admissions per itinerary, $10 gift certificate towards lunch, and a Professional Tour Director throughout the day. Bus Driver Gratuity and Professional Tour Director Services Gratuity are not included.
